

CPD Questionnaire

CPD@SA Family Practice

Earn 100% of your required CEU points by completing the SA FAMILY PRACTICE CPD questionnaire each month.

2007 ANSWER SHEETS

CPD QUESTIONNAIRES MUST NOW BE COMPLETED ONLINE AT www.safpj.co.za

1. Only doctors in the CPD area (family practice) are eligible for CPD. CPD questionnaires are available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice).
2. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
3. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
4. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
5. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
6. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
7. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
8. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
9. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.
10. The CPD questionnaire is available to all doctors in the CPD area (family practice) regardless of their registration status.

Please refer to the CPD section of the SA Academy of Family Practitioners' Code and subscribe to the journal only.
Do not photocopy or reuse any part of this questionnaire.
© SA Family Practice 2007

True or False	True	False
Question 1-8: Psylla Ulcer Disease , Page 18-20
1. Drinking increases the risk of ulcer recurrence and blood healing.
2. If Psylla is present in stool, patients with gastric ulcers.
3. NSAIDs are the most common reason of gastric ulcer disease in patients without H. Pylori infection.
4. Cimetidine is a prokinetic agent.
5. Prokinetic agents are usually reserved for taking food.
6. A serum EUSa test for H. Pylori is the most sensitive test.
7. 90% heal most gastric and duodenal ulcers after two weeks of therapy.
8. Gastric ulcer GI complications among the general population who do not take NSAIDs are relatively high.
9. Bleeding gastric ulcers are more common than perforation.
Question 10-17: Pel related infections , Page 27-33
10. Acute gonorrhoea in pregnant women can cause serious congenital infections.
11. Gonorrhoea does not spread from asymptomatic infections and infections.
12. New born babies cannot transmit gonorrhoea.
13. High level gonorrhoea can be treated with ceftriaxone.
14. Cell specific disease may occur in men.
15. Proctitis commonly presents with flu-like symptoms.
16. Leptospira is most commonly found in cattle, pigs and dogs.
17. HIV can be spread via dog or cat.
Question 18-20: Somatization disorder , Page 34-36
18. Conversion disorder is characterised by a single unexplained symptom that involves voluntary or sensory functioning.
19. Conversion disorder is usually present after 35 years of age and symptoms last for a short period of time.
20. Cognitive behavioural therapy is an effective therapy for conversion disorder.

Surname: _____ Initials: _____ GP Number: _____
 Address: _____
 Telephone: _____ Fax: _____
 E-mail: _____ Signature: _____

SA Fam Pract 2007 46(10) 39

Looking for the CPD questionnaire?

This is now provided as a loose insert and will be available only to SAAFP members and subscribers as from the next edition.

Please join the SA Academy of Family Practice or subscribe to SAFP.

A membership/subscription form is available:

- 1) In this issue – see page 77-78
- 2) On the loose CPD questionnaire (Provided to ALL readers ONLY with this issue)
- 3) Online at www.safpj.co.za, www.saaafp.org and www.medpharm.co.za

Die VPO program is ook beskikbaar in Afrikaans
(Sien inskrywingsvorm vir meer inligting.)

Thank you in advance for joining the SA Academy of Family Practice/Primary Care