

Dr Saville Furman writing and taking pictures from his practice in Cape Town

Dr George Davie from Pretoria decked out with the Academy tie!

Taken at a Pretoria Academy meeting in the early 1980's. From L.
to R: Prof S Fehrsen, Drs E Mogoba, Ebrahim, T Quan, M Ismail, A Adam, P Padayachee, P Makhambeni and R Marivate.

Proff Howard Botha
(Pretoria) and Maartin van Vuuren
(Bloemfontein)

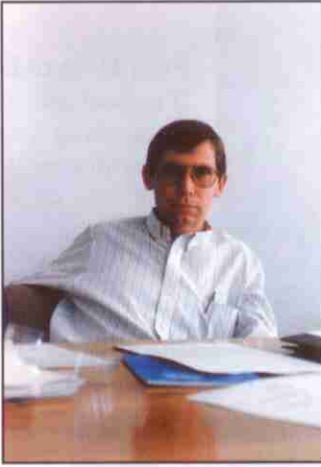

Dr Mossie Silbert
from Cape Town

Dr Sid Mobbs from Pietermaritzburg

Prof Nigel Stott from Cardiff at the 1990
Congress

Dr Manfred Teichler Editor of the Family Practice Manual 1991 to 1994

Dr Chris Ellis author of the regular column Essential
CME from 1995

L to R: Proff Bruce Sparks of WITS and Howard Botha of Pretoria
the first Professor of Family Medicine in South Africa

Dr Neethia Naidoo from New Hanover in Rural KwaZulu Natal

Prof Julia Blitz-Lindeque of Pretoria

Prof Marietjie de Villiers of Stellenbosch

Prof Khaya Mfenyana
of Mthatha

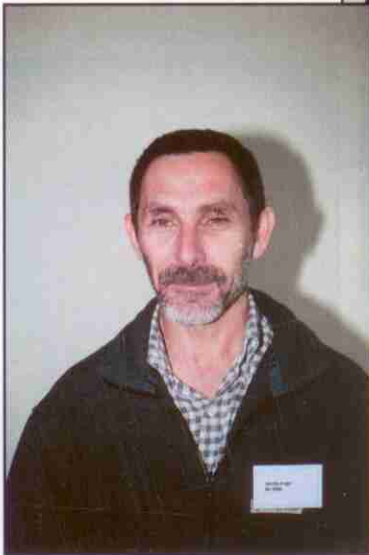

Prof Pierre de Villiers of Stellenbosch and Editor of SA Family Practice

Prof Jannie Hugo of Pretoria

Prof Adri Prinsloo of Bloemfontein

Prof Gboyega Ogunbanjo of MEDUNSA

Dr Leon Geffen of Cape Town
Chairman of SASPREN

Dr Elma de Vries of Cape Town and RuDASA

Shadrack Mazaza of Cape Town present
National Academy
Chairman

Present Editorial Board of SA Family Practice.

L to R, Front: M de Villiers, A Prinsloo, G Ogunbanjo, K Moodley and J Blitz-Lindeque, Back: J Hugo, D Greeff, I Couper, P de Villiers and B Mash

A Family Practice Congress Group probably 1984

Ian McWhinney and Sam Fehrsen in the Drakensberg while visiting Emmaus Hospital after the 1984 Congress

Bob Mash of Stellenbosch
Editor of the S A
Handbook for Family
Medicine

Stanley Levenstein of Cape Town leader of Western Cape Vocational Training and the Balint Groups in South Africa

Speakers at the 1996 Congress: Tom Campbell of Rochester, New York, Khaya Mfenyana from Mthatha, Jan Heyrman from Louvain, Belgium and Sam Fehrsen Pretoria.

At the dinner of the 12th Congress 2003 in Stellenbosch
L to R: Gboyega Ogunbanjo of Medunsa with four colleagues from the Eastern Cape, Don and Mrs O'Mahony, Pinkie Mbambisa, Zweli Mbambisa and Khaya Mfenyana.